

Morris Glass

survivor of multiple concentration camps as well as the ghettos at Pabianice and Lodz (Poland)

Morris Glass

- Morris was born in Pabianice, Poland.
- At age 11 he witnessed the Nazis invade Poland.
- Morris endured the Jewish ghettos at Pabianice and Lodz, then Auschwitz-Birkenau and five camps in the Dachau system
- Out of 42 members of his immediate family, only Morris, his brother, and a first cousin survived the Holocaust.
- Morris has remained a highly visible public speaker promoter of Holocaust education.
- Read the memoir that tells his story.

Questions and Exercises

1. What would you expect to be the most common themes Morris would discuss? How does the word cloud confirm or challenge your expectations?
2. Based on the combinations of more and less frequently used words shown in the word cloud, what seems important to Morris? How might you explain this?
3. What words do you find Morris does NOT use often when describing his experiences? Does this surprise you? Why or why not?
4. Construct a creative project (poem, story, essay, etc.) focusing on the most frequently used words (those with the largest fonts in the word cloud). What does your project say about Morris's character? About the Holocaust? About what it means to be a survivor? About you?

academy Carolina enough German Florida greatest know keep moved name one Temple took year winter heart kept lived learned knew met might old see really Russia took year winter bridge coats Europe get felt life man produced son wife stay till belong daughter get felt life man produced son wife stay till built bought business different just much proud school times world active also brother come home made people wanted worse almost British away ad brought day Germany course got like married take long war young work back alive America got like married take long war young work always came factory NJ North tell time went want asked addition camp Glass father idea Israel make Palestine south story shoe three Center building found father idea Israel make Palestine south story shoe three Armed children county Forces incredible little live member months